

Adopt a Seat at the Opera House

MAKE HISTORY

You can make history by adding your own history to that of the McPherson Opera House by adopting an auditorium seat.

With completion of the auditorium scheduled for the end of the year (2009), now is the time to adopt your seat. Use the plaque on the seat's back, which appears at full size in the adjacent column, to memorialize your company, a spouse or family member, someone else who has been important in your life, or anything at all.

The plaque has space enough for a long comment, or you can keep it brief if you want. Of the many seats adopted so far, the inscriptions have run the gamut.

100 characters gives you room for freedom of expression. Your plaque will be a testimony for generations.

A SEAT AT EVERY PRICE LEVEL

Seat adoptions come in three levels: $1,000, $500, $350. The price varies according to location. It's fair to say, though, that given the intimacy of the Opera House auditorium, every seat is a good seat. Keep in mind that adopting a seat is not the same as reserving a seat. For an actual performance, you can reserve any seat in the house, including the one you adopted, if it's still available.

24 YEARS IN THE MAKING

It's been 24 years since that first heroic group saved the Opera House from demolition and began the slow—and often dirty—job of rehabilitation. Thanks to the generosity of individual donors, foundations, businesses, grants, government tax credits and the voters of McPherson, the end is truly in sight. This is an historic moment, and one you can share in by adopting a seat.

GONE IS GONE

Don't miss this opportunity to adopt your seat. It's first come, first served. Once they are gone, they are truly gone.

Please use the form on the other side to adopt your seat.
